WLDC Enforcement Drop In

Tuesday 10th November 10.30am - 12noon

Meet Bryan, enforcement officer with WLDC and discuss any issues you have in your area. Bryan will be at the library to hear your concerns regarding environmental issues such as fly tipping, dog fouling, noise violations, anti-social behaviour and more.

Take this opportunity to report grievances, find out about the rules surrounding these issues, your rights and how to make a report.

Now Streaming Forever Reading

Throughout November..... and remember the Library is free to join.

Netflix and the British Library have launched a new partnership that sees a curated collection of 20 books donated to 100 public libraries across the UK, to mark the National Year of Reading, a collection of books that inspired popular Netflix series and films.
Discover the stories behind favourites including Heartstopper, Pride and Prejudice, One Hundred Years of Solitude and Thursday Murder Club and get reading!
